

“Learning Mandarin Chinese and Writing Chinese Characters”

---Promoting Chinese Language Program and Chinese Culture

On February 1, 2017, Confucius Institute at Troy University organized the second Chinese class promotion for this new semester on the theme of "Learning Mandarin Chinese and Writing Chinese Characters" at Bibb Graves Hall. All the CIT staff on Troy campus took part in the event. CIT staff not only made a variety of Chinese bracelets with different colors but also taught the students how to write Chinese calligraphy. In the process of learning to write Chinese characters, they knew about the relevant cultural knowledge and the Confucius Chinese courses. The activity attracted a large number of students and staff to come. Most of them were interested in Chinese courses, Chinese Corner, Taichi classes and the China trip. Through this promotion, they have gained a better understanding of Chinese courses and Confucius Institute.
