

The students of History Department in Troy University visited Confucius Institute

On August 22, 2017, Ms. Margaret, the Professor of History Department took the students to visit the Confucius Institute at Troy University. The instructor in Confucius Institute, Ms. Lin Cao introduced the situation of Confucius Institute at Troy University. Ms. Wanjun Lu introduced the Chinese tea, Chinese calligraphy, Chinese painting, chess and Chinese musical instruments to all the students. Mr. Zhixin Chen, a visiting scholar from the Northeast Electric Power University played Guzheng and cucurbit flute for the students. Students were all interested in Chinese culture and put forward their own views on Chinese culture. After the visit, the students had a better understanding of the daily work of the Confucius Institute and Chinese culture.