

The students of Confucius Classroom at Charles Henderson Middle School Visited

Confucius Institute at Troy University

On May 4, 2017, CIT staff on Troy campus Ms. Lin Cao, Ms. Zhihong An, Ms. Lili Hu, Ms. Wenjuan Cheng and Ms. Wanjun Lu received the students of Confucius Classroom at Charles Henderson Middle School and showed them around Confucius Institute. Ms. An introduced the exhibition hall for the students in details, and interacted with all the students. Then they experienced the lion dance, Chinese drums, Chinese traditional costumes, chess and Chinese traditional instrument —Gu Zheng and so on. Then together with the teaching coach Mr. Calhoun, Ms. Hu and Ms. Cheng led the students to visit the terracotta warriors and other buildings of Troy University. At about 11:00 am, under the leadership of Mr. Brown, all the students went to Chinese buffet to taste the Chinese food. After this wonderful trip to Confucius Institute, the students knew better about the extensive and profound Chinese culture.

