

CIT Hosted Appreciation Luncheon on Montgomery Campus

On March 15, 2017, Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) successfully hosted its appreciation luncheon in Gold Room on Montgomery Campus. This gathering aims to extend warm gratitude to Montgomery staff for their great support in the past year.

Dr. Tatum, Vice Chancellor of Troy Montgomery Campus, delivered a speech where he pointed out the importance of CIT to Troy University, and gave his appreciation to Dr. Xu and her team for their hard work and dedication. Dr. Iris Xu, also made an appreciation speech. Firstly, she expressed her deep gratefulness to Troy University staff for their great support to CIT. Then, she introduced Mr. Zha Zhi, deputy dean of CIT from the partner university in China---Chongqing Normal University to the attendees, including all CIT staff working on Montgomery Campus. Later, Mr. Zha Zhi sent his thanks to the other departments at Troy University for their support and anticipated further close cooperation. At last, a piece of Chinese Calligraphy work was presented to Troy University Montgomery Campus.

All the attendees felt delighted working with the colleagues from China and hoped to jointly create a better future for Troy University.

