

Troy University Freshmen Visited CIT

On February 1st, 2018, a group of freshmen on Troy Campus visited the Confucius Institute Exhibition Hall. Professor Lin Cao from the Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) gave a brief introduction of CIT to the students and explained Chinese tea ceremony, traditional costumes, ancient musical instruments, Chinese dragons, lions and puppet shadow. Deputy Director of CIT, Mr. Zha demonstrated lion dance for the students in person. Students are particularly interested in Chinese culture. After the visit, the students had a deeper understanding of the Confucius Institute and Chinese culture.

