

CIT Held HSK and YCT Awarding Ceremony in Birmingham

February 16th, 2018 is the second day of Chinese New Year celebration. Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) held the ceremony of issuing the Chinese Proficiency Test (HSK) and Youth Chinese Proficiency Test (YCT) certificates to the students in the Confucius classrooms and teaching sites of Birmingham, Alabama. The Chinese teachers and students gathered together to celebrate the Chinese Lunar New Year.

Dr. Iris Hong Xu, Director of CIT, Mr. Zhi Zha, Deputy Director of CIT, Ms. Kai Zeng who is in charge of organizing HSK and YCT tests, and other CIT staff attended the awarding ceremony. At the ceremony, Dr. Iris Hong Xu first awarded CIT staff the HSK Test Administrator Certificates. Afterwards, Mr. Zhi Zha awarded the HSK and YCT Certificates to the students and delivered to them New Year's greetings. The two CIT directors also introduced to the attendees the 2018 STARTALK summer camp program arrangements.

CIT specially prepared Chinese New Year banquet which was full of Chinese flavors for the teachers and students. In this way, CIT staff gave their best wishes to all the guests. HSK and YCT awarding ceremony has effectively promoted Chinese language learning in Birmingham.

