

Montgomery Focus – the Workshop of

Chinese Street Food in Sichuan

On March. 23, 2018, the fifth workshop of the Chinese Culture Club at the Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) Montgomery campus in this year was held in E.L.Lowder Library with the title of Chinese Street Food in Sichuan.

From the perspective of economics, Ms. Kai Zeng expounded the prosperity of Chinese street food along with economic development. Then she introduced the top 10 Chinese street food by presenting a great number of pictures and video clips like Deep Fried Meat Pie, Sweet Water Noodles, Noodle Jelly in Red Oil, Pita Bread Sandwich, Pu Gai Mian, Wonton in Red Oil, Green Beans Noodles, Dan Dan Noodles, Fresh Spring Rolls and Braised Meat Pickles and More Fresh Bread.

After the presentation, Ms. Kai Zeng invited the audience to taste the Sichuan spicy beef made by herself. The audience enjoyed it very much and none of them seemed in any hurry to leave. This presentation is an important part of CIT Montgomery campus' goal of sending cultural events off campus and into the heart of everyone.
