

HSK/HSKK/YCT Test 2018 Spring in Alabama

From the 23rd March to the 7th April, 2018, Chinese Language Proficiency Test (HSK/HSKK/YCT) was held by Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) in the areas of Troy, Montgomery, Pike Road, Dothan and Birmingham, in Alabama. The test was conducted successfully with the direction of Dr. Iris Xu, Director of CIT, and Mr. Zhi Zha, Deputy Director of CIT.

The test covers eleven different levels, including HSK Level 1-4 and 6, HSKK Level 1-3/ YCT1-3 with the number of 169 candidates from elementary schools, high schools universities and local communities. They are from different cultural background, such as United States, Korea, Vietnam, as well as China.

About one hundred candidates of YCT mainly come from Kelly Springs Elementary School in Dothan, Pike Road Historic School in Pike Road, and Forest Avenue Academic Magnet in Montgomery and Indian Springs School in Birmingham. The rest of the candidates of HSK and HSKK are from Baldwin Magnet School, LAMP High School in Montgomery, Indian Springs School in Birmingham, Troy University and After-school Chinese program and Adult Chinese programs in Montgomery.

The Chinese Language Proficiency Test in 2018 Spring was launched in an effort to better serve Chinese language learners and with more participants involved in the state of Alabama. It is also a proof of the growing influence of Chinese language here in the communities.

