

Teachers and Students from LAMP Visited CIT

On April 30th, 2018, teachers and students from the Confucius Classroom at Loveless Academic Magnet Program (LAMP) High School, which is in the capital city of Alabama, Montgomery, visited Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT). CIT Director, Dr. Iris Hong Xu, along with other CIT staff, warmly welcomed the visitors. Ms. Lin Cao gave them a detailed introduction about Chinese calligraphy, Chinese painting, paper cutting, Chinese tea ceremony, Chinese traditional costumes and Chinese traditional music in the Chinese culture experience center---CIT Exhibition Hall. Ms. Lin Cao also instructed the students to draw panda with calligraphy brush and ink. The bracelets prepared by CIT staff were presented to the visitors with their best wishes. Some of the students received an interview with Troy TV after the field trip. Ms. Carrie from the International Arts Center vividly introduced Terracotta Warriors to all the visitors. After the visit, all teachers and students had lunch together and conducted more in-depth communication about Chinese culture and CIT routines.
