

PREFACE

The Troy University Fact Book 2007 includes data from the three merged campuses, Dothan, Montgomery, and Troy. The Fact Book is intended to be a reference with quantifiable data about students, faculty, staff, and financial and physical resources. It serves as a source of facts about Troy University and is used by administrators, faculty, staff, alumni, and others who may need information.

This edition of the Fact Book contains Troy University Quick Facts Fall 2006, a summary of information about Troy University including Dothan and Montgomery, Fast Facts Fall 2006 Student Services, a summary of Student Services information for the Troy Campus and, a summary of the CIRP Freshmen Survey conducted in 2006 on the Troy Campus.

The efforts of numerous individuals throughout the University are reflected in the 2007 Fact Book, including, but not limited to, Academic Division; Administration Division; Student Services Division; Institutional Advancement and External Relations Division; Institutional Research, Planning, & Effectiveness; and Chancellor's office.

A collection of tables and graphics such as this must be a relevant, functional tool; your suggestions for improving subsequent editions are welcome on the Troy University User's Comment Form at the back of this document.
