

From the Associate Vice Chancellor of Development

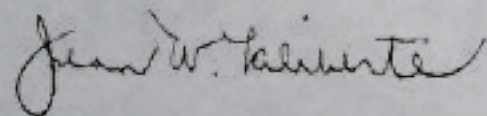

Thanks for your generosity last year! Your gift makes a difference as we strive to add value to your Troy University degree. Indeed, numerous indicators reflect enhanced quality and excellence in performance. Here's a glimpse of success stories each of you enabled by your contributions:

- The Alabama Commission on Higher Education approved TROY's first-ever doctor of philosophy degree – the Ph.D. in Sport Management.
- The National Endowment for the Arts awarded Troy University a “Big Read” program grant, making it the only University in the state of Alabama to receive the grant during the current cycle. “The Big Read” program seeks to expose citizens to great works of literature and encourages them to read for pleasure and enrichment.
- TROY's Department of Theatre and Dance production, “Single Girls Guide,” won the Kennedy Center's American College Theatre Festival Musical Theatre Award at regional competition and advanced to the National Festival.
- Learning By Design named Troy University's Trojan Arena as an outstanding project in its Spring 2014 Architectural Review Showcase.
- Alabama Library Association named the Troy Campus Library as the recipient of the annual Humanitarian Award for its role in the University's “Year of Holocaust Remembrance” programs.
- TROY's Athletic Training program ranked first in the state for its first-time pass rate for the Board of Certification.
- TROY formed the nation's first Collegiate Exchange Club at a public institution of higher learning.
- The Association of Collegiate Marketing Educators named Dr. Gordon G. Mosley, Associate Professor of Marketing, as its 2014 Outstanding Educator of the Year.
- Princeton Review named Troy University as one of the “Best in the Southeast” for the 10th year in a row.
- Our information technology, psychology, criminal justice, human services, Master of Business Administration and master's programs in Management and Human Resources programs were ranked among the best nationally by various associations.
- “Best Colleges for Veterans” and “Top Military Friendly University” awards were received from U.S. News and World Report, Military Times and Military Advanced Education.

And these honors mentioned represent only some of the accolades our programs, faculty and students have garnered. The dollars being invested in TROY are paying huge dividends!

Your gifts are important to us. As such, we are pleased to recognize your dedicated support in the past year. And we ask you to think about Troy University in your financial planning in the year ahead. As Helen Keller said, “...together we can do so much!”

Wishing you the best always,

Dr. Jean W. Laliberte, Associate Vice Chancellor for Development
