
2016 SUPER Teacher Program: Model United Nations Teacher Workshop (9-12)

TUSW501, RIC01001-16

Times: All-Day (8:00 am – 4:00 pm, 8 hours)

Date: Wednesday, June 22, 2016

Location: Hawkins, Adams, Long Hall of Honor (HAL Hall), Troy University, Troy

Program Name: 2016 SUPER Teacher Program: Model United Nations Teacher Workshop (9-12)

Program Description: Model United Nations has been known to increase student awareness of the world, while building essential skills such as public speaking and confidence. Students who participate in Model United Nations conferences build up skills that are extremely important for their future careers. The Model United Nations Teacher Workshop introduces high school history and civics teachers to the Model United Nations conference concept and provides information on starting a successful high school club. As the Faculty Adviser for the Troy University Model United Nations Club, Dr. Slobodchikoff will equip participants with the necessary tools, resources and activities to aid teachers in developing Model United Nations Clubs in their areas and schools. A high school Model United Nations Assembly is being planned for March 2017 at Troy University. Learn how to prepare your students to participate in the Model UN. For more information about this program, go to <http://www.alabamahumanities.org/programs/super-teachers/2016-super-teacher-institutes-scheduled/>.

One-day workshop. 8 CEUs awarded. Continental breakfast and lunch provided.

Please register via STI-PD AND the Alabama Humanities Foundation.

(The AHF link to register for this session: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2016SUPER> *An Essay is not required for registration. All applications must be submitted and completed online. The application deadline is April 13, 2016, but the registration deadline has been extended. Once your application is received, you will receive a confirmation e-mail noting its receipt. A $50 refundable deposit is required to complete your application for each institute and/or workshop. Please remit the refundable deposit to the following address:

Alabama Humanities Foundation
Attn: SUPER Teacher Program
1100 Ireland Way, Ste 202
Birmingham, AL 35205

*Please be sure to include the institute(s) you are applying for with your payment.)

Consultant: Dr. Michael Slobodchikoff, Associate Professor of Political Science, Troy University, Troy

